

Silvana G. Feiler

February 28, 1927 - January 19, 2020

Comments

“ rip mom stephen dwulit

stephen dwulit - March 26 at 06:42 PM

“ Born and raised in Florence, my mother-in-law Silvana came to New York as a teenager after the war. Throughout her long life, she always retained her old world sensibilities and appreciation for European art and culture. To help support her family, she worked in a long and successful career in banking with the Chase Manhattan Bank and the Israel Discount Bank. Silvana loved to travel, always bringing back something for her family from far away places. She was adored by her grandchildren, my sons Paul and Dan, and they, along with my wife Christine, were her pride and joy. My deepest condolences to my friend and stepfather-in-law Marty, the constant and loving companion for forty years to the lady who remained, at heart, a young girl from Florence.

Peter Bleiberg - February 11 at 09:33 AM

“ I am grateful to have met Nana and experienced some of her exuberance for life, always seeing the beauty of the world and devoted in her love for her family. I'll never forget how adventurous she was in trying Chinese hotpot when we were in Florida in 2019. That curiosity and boldness to experience new wonders, whether new cuisines or new places, throughout her life was inspiring.

Although I only got to know her briefly, I will miss Nana. I will always remember her vivaciousness, strength, kindness, and generosity.

Kathleen Sun - January 30 at 06:51 PM

“ Silvana, my Nana, was in awe of the world. Living, for her, was a pleasant surprise, a gift that she returned to her family many times over, and life's cruelties were no match for her ingenuous spirit. She knew to strive and not to yield. What she gave to me were curiosity, a recognition that life is not long enough for what it may contain, and 32 years of boundless affection. Her loving heart was beyond words and will endure for generations.

"I, who from human things, to things divine, from time, into eternity had come, from Florence to a people just and sane; because of this, indeed, and of my joy, it pleased me to be mute and hear no sound."

Dante
Paradiso XXXI

Daniel J Bleiberg - January 30 at 12:55 PM

“ We have known and loved Silvana for over 40 years. Silvana was a wonderful wife, mother, and grandmother.

My brother and Silvana had the good fortune to travel to many countries for extended periods of time. Silvana and Marty particularly enjoyed summers in the cool air of Vermont and we joined them for many happy times together.

We would be remiss not to mention her great cooking skills and we enjoyed many meals together.

Silvana was a very warm and loving person who touched all the people she encountered.

Rest in peace,

Michael and Wendy

Michael Feiler - January 25 at 09:58 AM

“ 1 file added to the album Silvana Feiler

Christine Bleiberg - January 24 at 04:16 PM

“ For my wife-I fondly recall our love and companionship, the hardships and pleasures, trials and triumphs, joys and sorrows that we shared together. You were the delight of my life May the sweet memories of our life together remain for a blessing and strengthen all that is good in me. Baci, Marty martin feiler - January 24 at 10:28 AM

“ For My Mother -

"Grace was in all her steps, Heaven
in her eye, in every gesture dignity and love."

John Milton
Paradise Lost

I will love her always and miss her forever.

Christine Bleiberg - January 23 at 04:35 PM

“ I am Silvana's grandson. As friends near and far hear the news of her passing and come to lay eyes on this page, I want everyone to know that even in her final months, Silvana remained the same loving, kind, gracious, and elegant woman I had the joy and privilege of knowing as my grandmother for these 35 years.

I'll always cherish the final time I saw her on my brother's wedding day last spring. She looked absolutely beautiful but more importantly, she beamed with pride as she watched her youngest grandson and his new wife celebrate their love and union.

I know my own mother will continue to bring to life Silvana's kindness, graciousness, and love of family. Watching her, I can only hope to emulate these qualities myself with her spirit in mind.

Rest in Peace, Nana. I love you.

Paul

Paul Bleiberg - January 21 at 07:44 PM